

The Circus Train

A Safety Poem by Operation Lifesaver, Inc.

The circus train
Is coming to town.
I stand far back
And look for the clowns.

I see the lion,
In car one.
He is having,
lots of fun!

I see the elephants
In car two.
They are trumpeting,
Choo! Choo! Choo!

I see the bears
In car three.
They like honey,
But not the bees.

I see the giraffes
In car four.
One fell asleep,
Can you hear him snore?

I found the clowns,
In car five.
They are the last,
To arrive.

The circus train,
CAME to town.
I stood far back,
And waved to the clowns!
